

Alii

Holo

Kai Newsletter

3446 Pakui St., Honolulu, Hi 96816 (808) 732-1756 OCTOBER 2012

ITS OCTOBER AND HERE ARE reminders of --- Coming Attractions

FREE! 7th Annual Hawaii Fishing and Seafood Festival at Pier 38 ---where Nico's and the Auction is located. Hawaii's largest fishing and seafood event gets bigger . Pacific Islands Fisheries Group (PIFG) continues the largest community celebration of Hawaii's fishing and seafood heritage. With over 20,000 attenders in previous years, the event will be held on October 7 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Honolulu Fishing Village, Pier 38. The festival's purpose is to promote awareness of marine conservation, ocean safety, responsible fishing and highlight Hawaii's magnificent seafood industry.

ALII HOLO KAI will have a booth to promote local knowledge of certain Hawaii' reef fish, while having fun. --Stop by and say hello-- Keiki games, entertainment, food, etc. Free Diving workshop (AHK's -Jason Hijirida) Lots of activity.. Wanna kokua at the booth,??—especially 10AM thru 2 PM. Give Terrence a call 836-5009 or 'come join us'!

October 20th MELE KALIKIMAKA - AHK XMAS Party @ Natsunoya Tea House. Mark your calendar and remember October 20th;Saturday- friendship, games, good food, etc Bring your grab bag gift—around $20, + or - no gags. , Also be sure to label with name any gifts that Santa will give to your kiddies. . We need fish for steaming to add to the ordered Tea house food. So—you divers can contribute a few fish between now and party time. We will accept fish good for steaming---about 2 to 4 pound size, kumus, panunue, mu, uku, etc. Also tako for the pupus. Call, clean and drop-off to Terrence, Dennis, Terry or Frank. Get your forms in or give Terrence a call so we can have an estimate on the numbers.

November 18th is the Kumu Hunt with the traditional POKI contest. This popular event is limited to 30 divers- and although the details/rules will be out with the next newsletter, you may want to let Terrence know your interest---you snooze, you lose! HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

Aloha and Safe diving,

 Frank

HERE are some pictures from AHK's 2012 Fathers day Diving with Dad outing.

